History

Twelve long years, and yet they have not been long at all, have passed since we first entered the doors of Boone Trail School. We, as youngsters, thought the school to be a vast and enormous building filled with people, and felt as though twelve years were an eternity.

On a beautiful day in the fall of 1948, we rode our first school bus, and took our first seats in Boone Trail School.

Miss Womack and Mrs. Pipkin were at the doors to welcome and love each one of us, and as time moved on we found we loved them, too. We entered the second grade under the guidance of Mrs. Steele and Miss McLeod.

The third year we had our first of two teachers in a single year. Mrs. Biggs and Mrs. Newell Patterson were there to guide and direct us through the first half of the year, with Mrs. Biggs and Mrs. Kelly seeing us through the second half. The fourth grade teachers and companions were Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Stewart.

The fifth grade was entered under the direction of Mrs. Fulton Patterson and Mrs. Ray. After Christmas of the same year, Mrs. Loving came to us to finish the year. The sixth grade finally came and along with it, new interests were found. Mrs. Patterson and Miss Rogers were our teachers this year.

The seventh grade came and this proved to be our most exciting. Mrs. Steele and Mrs. Powell were our teachers and very wonderful guides. This year we made our first trip to Raleigh as a school group. We entered the eighth grade under the leadership of Mr. Hubbard and Mrs. Byrd, and then Mrs. Steele came to guide and direct us the last part of the year. This was the year Nelson Wallace and Patsy O'Quinn received the 8th grade medals.

At long last we finally entered the doors of high school and an entirely different school life. Being Freshmen and somewhat afraid of high school we needed helpful and understanding leaders, and we found them in Mr. Stewart and Mr. O'Kelly.

We entered our Sophomore year under the leadership of Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Seymore.

Finally our Junior year arrived. With the help of Mrs. Arnold and Mrs. Hales we had a very enjoyable year. We spent the first half of the year selling magazines and making money. Under Mrs. Arnold's direction the Junior play, "Brides to Burn," was given with much success. We gave the Seniors a banquet centered around "Hawaii," and it was enjoyed by all; Mrs. Hales was the director. In May we ordered our class rings and began what proved to be a long anxious wait.

Our biggest year has arrived and with Mr. and Mrs. Stewart guiding and directing us it has proved most enjoyable. The first part of the year was filled with ordering caps and gowns, receiving our class rings and working on our annual, TRAIL'S ECHOES; which we all are proud of. Our Senior play "One Mad Night," was given in November and was very successful.

The banquet the Juniors gave us was very wonderful and we deeply thank them for it.

Finally the day for our trip to the Nation's capitol and New York arrived, and ended all too soon, but everyone had a wonderful time and we enjoyed Mr. and Mrs. Stewart being with us.

We have only a short time before graduation. It will be a time of joy and yet a time of sorrow for some of us.

As graduation nears we all think back and remember the good times we have had in school. Some memories will be forgotten, but there are many that will remain.

As we stand on the threshold of life, we pause to thank each and every teacher, leader, and principal who has so faithfully guided and directed us through our school life at Boone Trail School.

Prophecy

We were in Hawaii for our last wonderful night.
It was oh so warm, and the moon was bright.
There was rippling water and soft golden sand.
Suddenly, something broke the silence.
Then, it all began. The winds began to tell us, in whispers, soft and low.
Our fates of the future that we want you all to know.

Now we see Barbara Sue Rogers employed as a secretary for Roberts Company, Inc.
Walter Gentry is doing quite well; he is now head of Mars Electronics Company.
Glenn Passmore, having a great love for racing, won the Kentucky Derby three years straight.
Waldo Buchanan is now running for the U. S. Track Team in Australia.
Jerry Thomas has done very well; he is now head of Saco-Lowell Shops.
Now we see J. D. Ashworth in Hollywood. His latest movie is, "He Was a Good Kid."
At last Joyce Bailey and Opal Patterson have decided on what McNeill's they want.
Lida Brown was seen on her front porch sitting in her rocking chair still undecided.
Edna Cox has finally reached the "top!" She is now a stewardess for American Airlines.
Janet Harrington found a good use for her knowledge for everyone; she now works as a correspondent for Dorthea Dix.
Wallace Allen is now "Dean" of Mechanics School, in Mamers, North Carolina.
Now we see Fred Buchanan as owner of Collins Printing Press. His slogan is "Cheaper by the dozen."
Pat Brown is now a reporter and types for the New York Tribune.
James Bullard and Harry Holder have finally taken over Matt Dillion and Chesters' place on Gunsmoke.
Buddy Denise was last seen still trying to fool people.
Margaret Patterson was heard, still singing her old song, "Colorado, Here I Come."
Leverne McNeill has done very well for himself; he has just established his telephone company, "Bethune, Inc."
Sara House is now employed as a nurse in Lee County.
Clyde Roberts is number one salesman for Gillette Razor Company.
Jeanette Parker is now a happy little housewife.
Elsie Page has just written the last page of her book, "How to be a Secretary and Marry a Millionaire."
Nancy Holder finally got the degree as, "Mrs. Thomas Williams."
Last time anyone saw Pat Yarborough she was having a good time tending to the third little William, Jr.
Kyle Harrington has also just finished his latest movie. "How To Charm All The Girls."
Steve Hawley has his own race track now, "The Hawley Special."
Sonny Burgess has just finished his latest book, "Ten Days to Fool a Doctor's Son."
Shirley Collins was last seen in town, still giving out information to everyone.
Since Judy McNeill enjoyed the State Fair so well, she has recently been offered a job as "CARETAKER FOR THE ARENA."
Luther O'Quinn entered college to major in chemistry; he is doing very well. He is employed by his father as a truck driver.
Patsy Dean was last seen working for Belks Department Store as a store detective.
Nelson Wallace now makes lectures in clubs everywhere, his latest is, "How to Disagree Politely."
Patsy O'Quinn has taken over Perry Mason's place as a lawyer.
Inez was last seen still fighting those "Gale Storms" of hers.
Mary Baker lived up to her name, she now owns one of the South's largest Baker's Company.
Pearl Wilson has just started her own fan club; her fans are boys. Isn't that right Pearl?
Dot Wilson has finally succeeded in finding a boyfriend that Annie Jane can't take over.
Sue Brown is now owner of the "Newton Beauty Salon" in Mamers.
Beatress Honeycutt now works for Lanier's Restaurant in Lillington.
Aubrey Rosser is now a prosperous car owner; he goes by the name of "Loud Mouth Rosser."

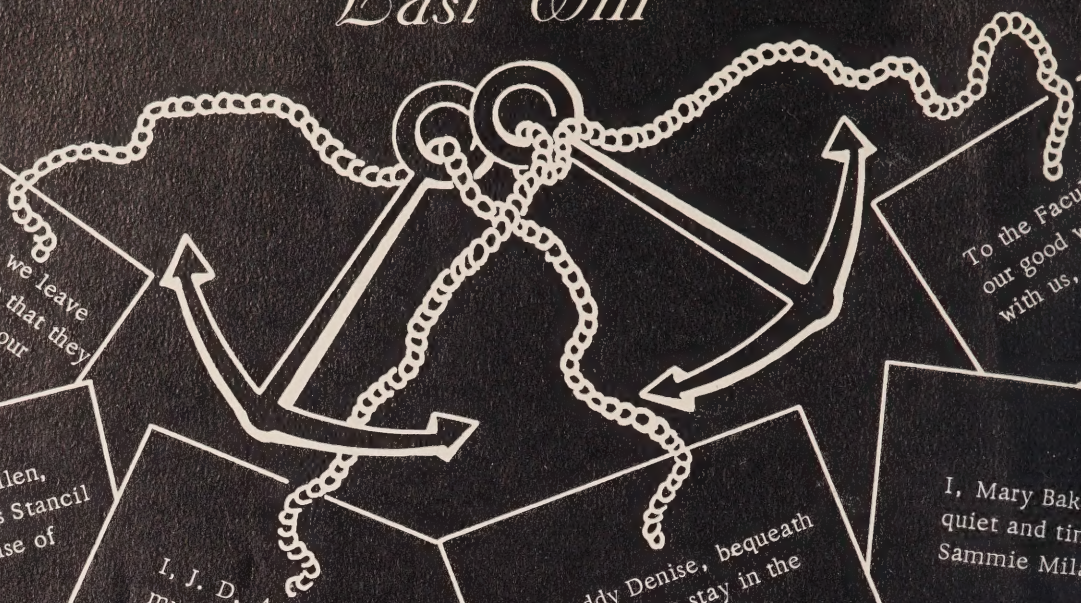
Last Will



To the Juniors, we leave our best wishes so that they will be able to fill our places next year.

To the Faculty, we leave our good ways and take with us, our bad.

I, Wallace Allen, will to James Stancil my good sense of humor.

I, J. D. Ashworth, will my "Nutty Remarks" to the next nut.

I, Buddy Denise, bequeath my ability to stay in the Beta Club to Jimmie Garrett.

I, Mary Baker, will my quiet and timid ways to Sammie Milazzo.

I, Joyce Bailey, will my many curls to Bobbie Thomas

I, Sue Brown, will my title "Miss Boone Trail" to Linda Wilson.

I, Lida Brown, will my ability to break up and make up with boys to Jeannie Hamilton.

I, Pat Brown, will my job of making play programs to Deloris Norton.

I, Fred Buchanan, leave my love for slapping girls to anyone who has the nerve to try it.

I, Sonny Burgess, will my athletic ability to Aubrey Brown.

I, Waldo Buchanan, leave my secret ability to charm all girls to Ross Brown.

I, James Bullard, leave hoping to find something better.

I, Walter Gentry, leave my knowledge of everything to anyone who needs it.

I, Shirley Collins, will my dependability and everlasting faith to Gwen Stewart.

I, Edna Cox, will my position on the basketball team to Hazel Byrd.

I, Patsy Dean, leave my physics grades to the Sophomore Class.

I, Harry Holder, leave broke, I have nothing to will.

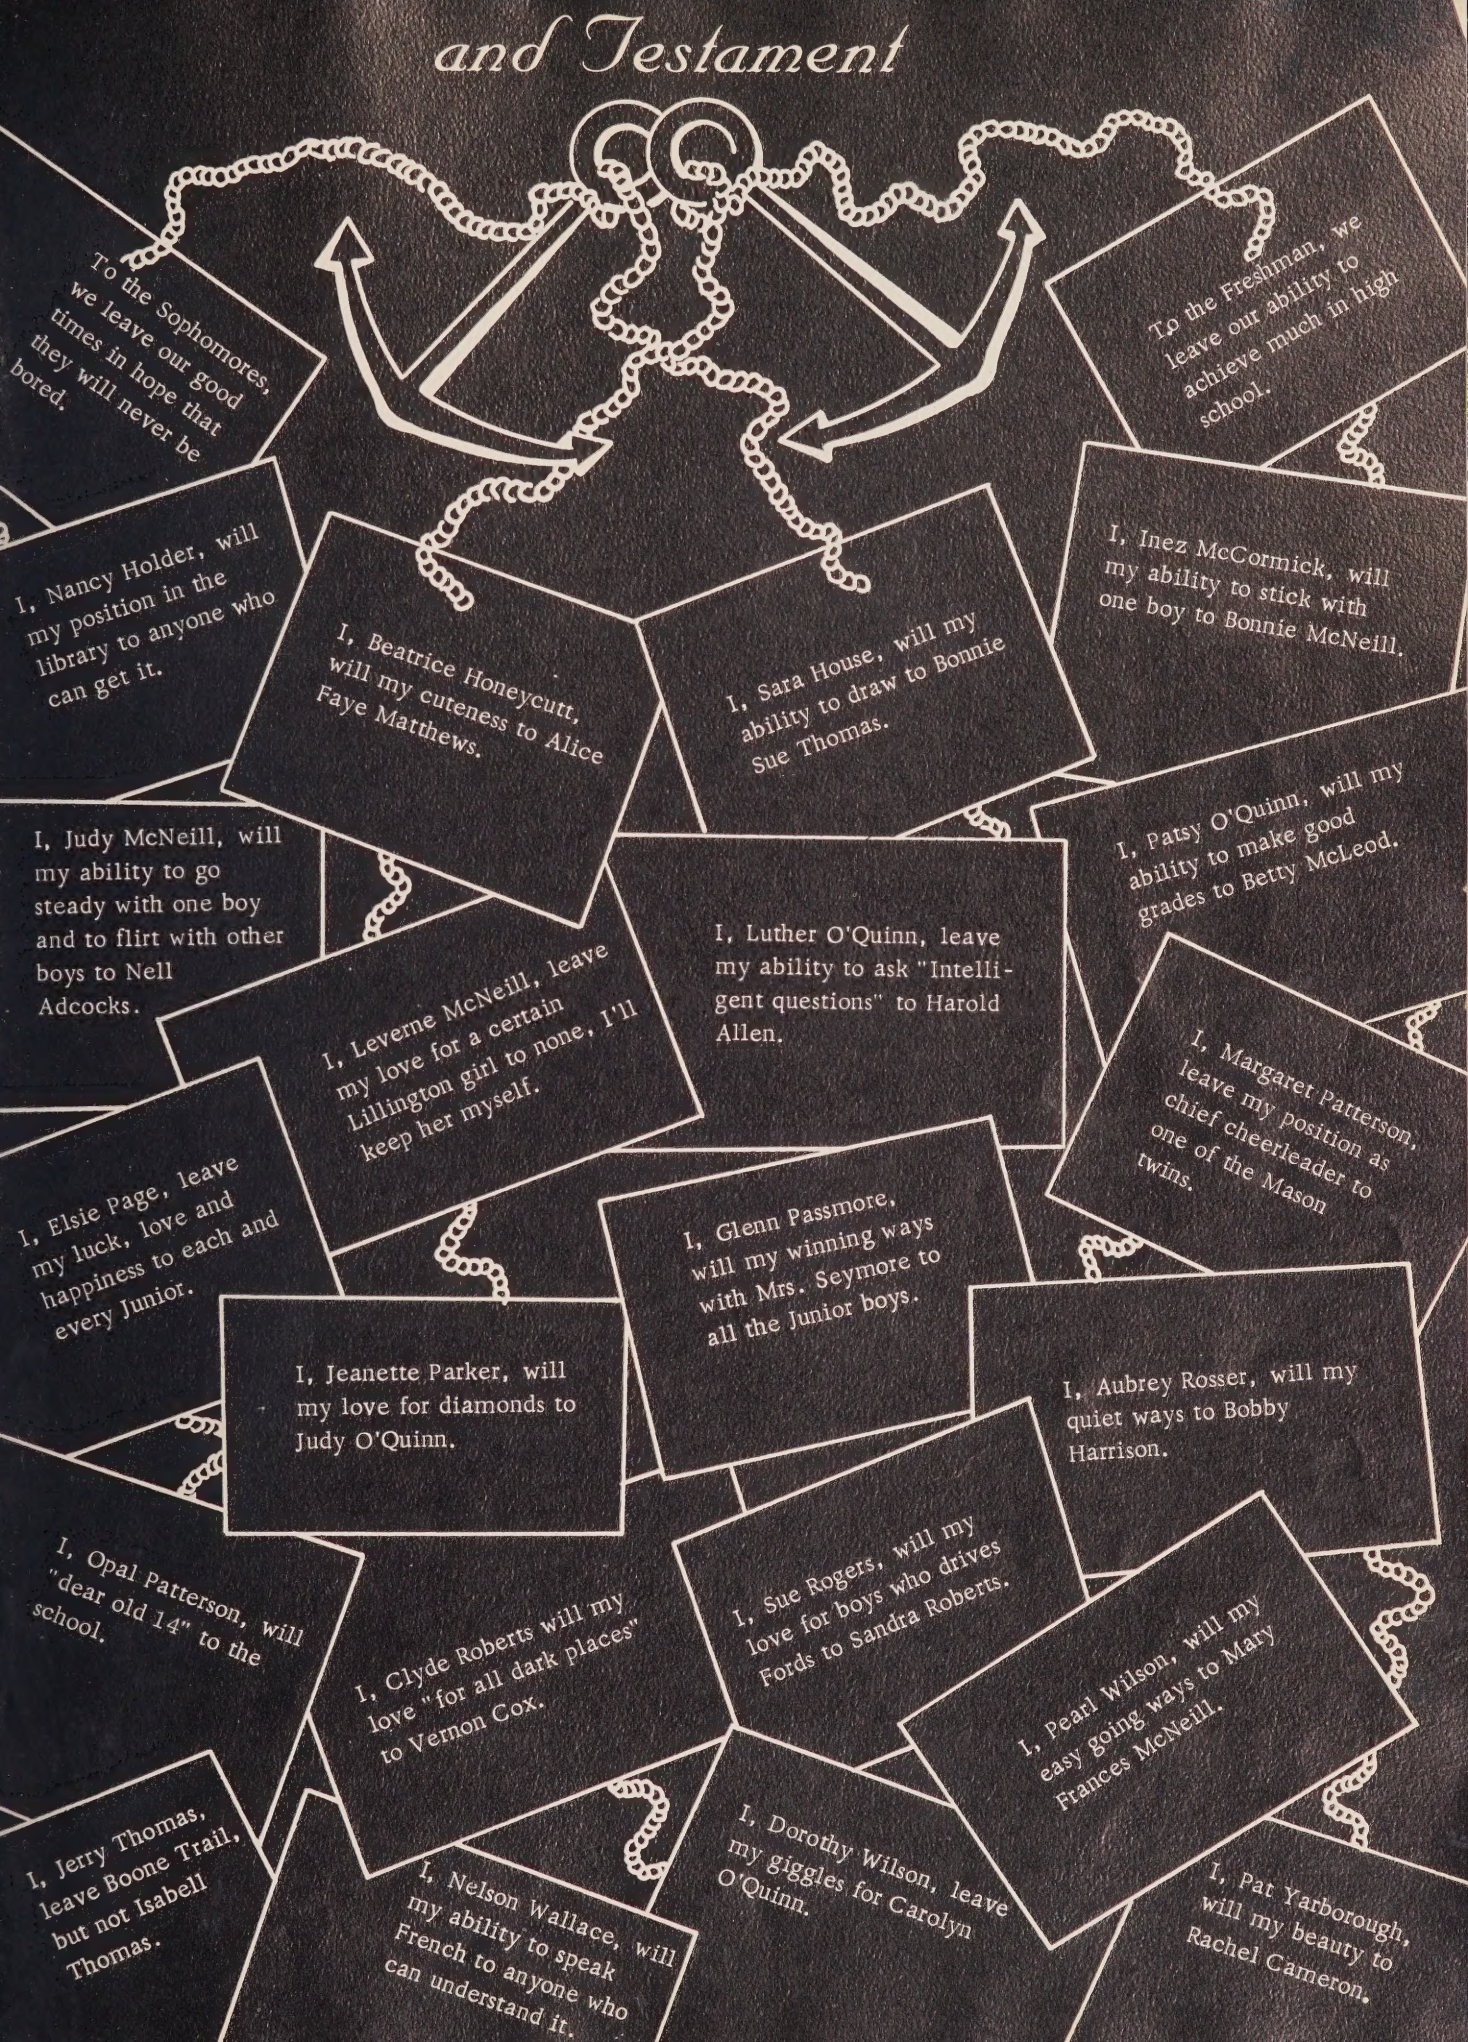
I, Janet Harrington, will my love for Sanford and the Sanford boys to Carolyn Batchelor.

I, Kyle Harrington, will my ability to keep all the girls crazy about me to Errol O'Quinn

I, Steve Hawley, will my love for the Sophomore girls to Ronnie Cummings.

I, Mary Holder, leave my ability to be seldom seen but always heard to Kay Holder.

and Testament



To the Sophomores, we leave our good times in hope that they will never be bored.

To the Freshman, we leave our ability to achieve much in high school.

I, Nancy Holder, will my position in the library to anyone who can get it.

I, Beatrice Honeycutt, will my cuteness to Alice Faye Matthews.

I, Sara House, will my ability to draw to Bonnie Sue Thomas.

I, Inez McCormick, will my ability to stick with one boy to Bonnie McNeill.

I, Judy McNeill, will my ability to go steady with one boy and to flirt with other boys to Nell Adcocks.

I, Leverne McNeill, leave my love for a certain Lillington girl to none, I'll keep her myself.

I, Luther O'Quinn, leave my ability to ask "Intelligent questions" to Harold Allen.

I, Patsy O'Quinn, will my ability to make good grades to Betty McLeod.

I, Elsie Page, leave my luck, love and happiness to each and every Junior.

I, Margaret Patterson, leave my position as chief cheerleader to one of the Mason twins.

I, Jeanette Parker, will my love for diamonds to Judy O'Quinn.

I, Glenn Passmore, will my winning ways with Mrs. Seymore to all the Junior boys.

I, Aubrey Rosser, will my quiet ways to Bobby Harrison.

I, Opal Patterson, will "dear old 14" to the school.

I, Clyde Roberts will my love "for all dark places" to Vernon Cox.

I, Sue Rogers, will my love for boys who drives Fords to Sandra Roberts.

I, Pearl Wilson, will my easy going ways to Mary Frances McNeill.

I, Jerry Thomas, leave Boone Trail, but not Isabell Thomas.

I, Nelson Wallace, will my ability to speak French to anyone who can understand it.

I, Dorothy Wilson, leave my giggles for Carolyn O'Quinn.

I, Pat Yarborough, will my beauty to Rachel Cameron.

TO OUR ADVERTISERS AND FRIENDS

As the year has rolled by for the Seniors, we find that many things have changed for us as well as for our country. For us, we find it is time to leave Boone Trail and go out into another world. Our country has changed for it now has fifty states. In our annual this time, we proudly chose HAWAII as our theme. To us, it is truly the Eden of Sand, Sea, and Sun. We hope you enjoy the 1960 Edition of TRAIL'S ECHOES. We wish to thank all of you for helping us to make possible this year's TRAIL'S ECHOES.
